

HAVE DUMMY
Will Travel

Per Diem Employment Opportunity Basic and Advanced Life Support (ACLS and PALS) Instructors

Successful Candidates MUST:

- Hold current instructor certification through a nationally recognized organization (American Heart Association, National Safety Council, American Red Cross, Emergency Care and Safety Institute Training Center, etc.);
- Have thorough knowledge of the subject matter and format of all classes (s)he is certified to teach;
- Have a passion for teaching and helping people;
- Exhibit both patience and compassion when working with the lay public;
- Exhibit both expertise and humility when teaching medical professionals;
- Exhibit reliability and professionalism in communications with colleagues and administrative personnel;
- Have a clean NYS Driver's License and properly registered vehicle; and
- Be able to safely transport and carry class equipment and materials.

Opportunities are available in both our Miller Place office AND all around the Long Island and Greater New York area.

EMS providers with work experience in a 9-1-1 system or RNs with experience in critical care settings are preferred.

Bilingual (English and Spanish) opportunities are also available.

Have Dummy Will Travel, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer and embraces the diversity found in our clients and contractors.

To apply, please forward your resume and contact information to erik@havedummy.com.